~Be Blessed to Spread Their Wings & Fly!

Our Butterfly Boutique is open to help women move forward, regardless of their circumstances. Whether they have been from an abusive background, in recovery, re-entering the community, unemployed, a student in need of clothing for an interview or an outfit for church...we would be more than happy to help. This will enable visitors to have more self esteem and confidence. However we help them, our hope is they have a positive experience and leave feeling renewed! Each woman is precious and deserving of 'God's Best'! The clothing and accessories will be without charge...freely given from our hearts to theirs. Angels of Mercy wants every woman to be able to go forward in their life and reach whatever positive goal they have in mind. We would also like to extend the opportunity to the area Funeral Homes to call us if there is a need for Burial Clothing for women and or/women family members in need.
